Last night, while they were walking together near Broadway and 45th Street, Harding's brave heart sank when he looked around and failed to see his little pal. He whistled and called in vain. An all night search failed to reveal the little veteran.

When morning came, Harding appealed to his friend, John MacPherson of No. 440 Riverside Drive, and an alarm for the missing pet was sounded throughout the city. Harding and MacPherson believe that the little fellow got lost in the crowd. They are sure the dog followed some man in uniform. He never had much use for plain clothes, they said.

Any one finding "Bobby" will ear... the gratitude of Trooper Harding for the return of his little pal-all that is near and dear to him in the world. The finder should notify MacPherson, who will see that the two veterans are reunited.

KEITH QUITS REVENUE JOB.

Resigns as Collector in Brooklys to Resume Law Practice. Henry P. Keith, Collector of Inter al Revenue for the First District which embraces Brooklyn, has sent is resignation to Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo, who has accepted it and has appointed Keith's chief deputy. Bertram Gardner, to the col-lectorship.

The reason given by Keith was that his salary. $1,009 a year, was inade-quate and that he had an opportunity to do much better by forming a law partnership with Lamar Hardy, for-neely Corporation Counsel. The new law firm will be affiliated, although not directly connected with the firm of Stanchfield & Levy.

WAITERS MEET TO-NIGHT.

Final Action Will Be Taken on Strike Plans.

The Interactional Federation of Hote Imployees to-day sent messengers to more than 159 resiaurants of Manhattan to call together their walters, cooks and storeroom girls for a meeting to-night at Bryant Hall, No. 723 Sixth Avenue, at which final action will be taken in the plan for a general strate.

Otto Wagner, Secretary-Treasurer of the Federation, says demands will be presented to the individual restaurant proprietors and the Restaurant Men's Association to-morrow. The waiters will ask for a minimum wage of $12 a week. They are now receiving $8.
